The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") is part of the South Carolina Code of Laws allowing any citizen to have access to public records and to records of meetings of public bodies with some exceptions as defined in the Act. Note that submission of a question or questions that does not include a request for a "record" is not a request covered by FOIA.

This policy is applicable to all departments and elected officials of Chesterfield County and to any board or commission whose members are appointed by the County Council of Chesterfield County, South Carolina.

In accordance with FOIA, the County or applicable elected official has ten (10) working days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) to determine if the information requested is publicly available under FOIA.

Exemptions
According to the South Carolina Code of Laws, Chesterfield County may choose to deny a FOIA request based on exemptions noted in the law. Commonly denied requests include:

- Obtaining or using any personal information acquired for commercial solicitation;
- Matters requesting the identity or information tending to reveal the identity of any individual who in good faith makes a complaint or otherwise discloses information, which alleges a violation or potential violation of law or regulation; and
- Documents or reports being requested in a special format or one that must be created that is not already in existence.

Please take note Deeds, Easements, Mortgages, Plats, Surveys, and Liens may be accessed by visiting the South Carolina Land Records website (sclandrecords.com) and certain court records may be accessed through the South Carolina Judicial Department website (sccourts.org).
